A DRUGGIST'S DOOM

Followed by an Angry Mob Who Will Lynch Him on First Sight.

OVER FIFTY PERSONS POISONED

By Drinking of Lemonade That Was Made From Sugar of Lend.

A SAD ENDING TO A MERRY PICNIC

ISPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCE. TORONTO, ONT., June 25,-The details of a fearful story of criminal carelessness have arrived from Woodstock. Fifty persons in the town are prostrated and 15 are not expected to live. The unfortunate wretch to whose door this calamity is laid is a would-be druggist who recently opened a store in town, but now has fled to escape the fary of the citizens who threaten if they eatch him to discount even Judge Lynch's expeditions methods. Woodstock is situated in the township of Zorra. On Saturday the farmers of that county gave a monster picnic in Willit's grove about two miles from the town. The morning was cool and showery, and as a consequence the refreshment booths were badly patronized, few, if any partaking of the ice cream and lemonade, which had been supplied by a Woodstock confectioner. In afternoon, however, the sun came out, and toward evening the weather grew close and sultry, and a great rush was made for cooling refreshments, the lemonade in par-ticular being consumed in large quantities. All was jollity until the picnickers were about to start for home when suddenly a Miss Shaw, who was dancing on one of the DISMAY SUCCEEDS PLEASURE. Friends had hardly started to apply restoratives when two young ladies were similarly seized. This sudden interruption of the festivities caused very general alarm, which was intensified to horror when almost immediately others of the gathering to the number of 50 were stricken, and lay rolling on the sward in terrible agony. Several doctors were with the picnickers, and these, with others who were hastily summoned from the town, attended the sufferers.

Noting the symptoms the doctors at once pronounced it a case of poisoning. Many of the unfortunates were thought to be dy-ing. While the medical men administered hot milk, mustard and other emetics at hand, express wagons were brought out from Woodstock, and in them the sufferers were moved to their homes.

An investigation proved that only those who had partaken of the lemonade had been attacked, and the poisoning was readily traced to this source. All day and this morning the authorities were endeavoring to find out how the poison came to get into the lemonade, and this afternoon it was dis-covered that the confectioner who had furnished the drink, in order to save lemons, had used in its concoction what he believed to be tartaric acid.

A PATAL MISTARE.

Fortunately some of the powder which he had purchased from the new druggist remained, and on examination it was found to be "sugar of lead," which he had sold in mistake for the harmless ingredient. The news of this discovery quickly spread all over the town. The rage of the townspeo-ple almost amounted to madness, which they determined to vent upon Druggist Alexander, who was a stranger, having been only a short time in the place.

short time in the place.

A crowd quickly gathered and marched in a body to his store. The shop was locked. A plank was torn from the sidewalk and used as a battering ram. The door was quickly broken down and the maddened men entered. There was no one in the store, but this did not secrease their rage, and in a few minutes the stock in trade of the druggist was scattered all over the street. Then a thorough search of the premises was made to find the man who had unwittingly brought sorrow to so many happy homes. The search was fruitless, however. homes. The search was fruitless, however. The house was empty, Alexander having seen the angry crowd approaching had made good his escape from a back entrance and fied to the woods. Baffled at not finding their intended victim the crowd proceeded to demolish things generally, and quickly wrecked the entire premises.

CHASED BY THE MOR. They would have gone further and burned the building had not a rumor spread that Alexander had been seen in another part of the town, where the whole mob quickly started to hunt for him. He was not found, however. Although the majori-ty of those peisoned are slowly recovering from the effects of the deadly mineral, 15 of the number were this evening reported to be dving, all being in a state of collapse from which all efforts of the physicians so far have failed to revive them. The names of those whose recovery is considered impossible are as follows: Mamie Shaw, aged 20; Sadie Hartnett, aged 22; Alice Flynn, 16; Minnie Flynn, 19; Mrs. McNaughton, 45; Mrs. McAlpin, 23 (only married a week); Mrs. Sarah Smith, 38, and her two daughters, Sarah, 11, and Minnie, 8; Edward Nolan, 19; James Shaw, 22: John McKetcher, 24; Edward, Lewis, 17, and John Shortel.

Finding that Alexander had made his escape, one of the citizens lodged a com-plaint against him, and a warrant was sworn out for his arrest. As he is thought to be hiding in the woods back of Woodstock, a number of specials were sworn in and sent out to search for and arrest him. A crowd has started after the specials with the open ly avowed intention of capturing the drug-gist and lynching him. Up to midnight tonight the unfortunate druggist had not been caught, nor had any deaths resulted from

NEW PASTOR INSTALLED.

Rev. H. H. Stiles Placed in Charge of the Forty-Third Street Church. The Forty-third Street Presbyterian Church

The Forty-third Street Presbyterian Church was beautifully decorated last night in honor of the installation of Rev. H. H. Stiles, as pastor. Rev. A. E. Lynn, preached the sermon, taking as a subject the dedication of man to the cause of Christianity. Many of the remarks of Mr. Lynn were very touching and were a splendid tribute to the sacrifice of man who will in the present age consecrate himself, his life and work to the teachings and labor of Christ.

Rev. W. P. Shrom, of the Fourth Presbyterian Church, delivered the charge to the pastor, and Rev. Dr. Lee, the old minister of the Forty-third Street Church, delivered the charge to the people.

After graduating Mr. Stiles devoted himself to the study of theology, at the Western Theological Seminary, in Allegheny. He was liceused to preach by the Allegheny Presbytery in December, 1888.

"I wish I had all the money that is taken in by the barbers of the two cities in one week. I would then take a holiday and go to Europe."

The reporter roused himself enough to ask how much was taken in one week for shaves, He replied that he used about 400 towels a week in his abop.

"In all the 340 shops in Pittsburg and Allegary to would average the same number."

About Quality.

It's a mistaken notion to make a pack-horse of price in clothing.

It can't alter the quality or turn inferior workmanship into reliable.

The strong point is-Is this a tried and proved quality? Is it known to be strong? Is it made of the best and choice materials? Will it give me long and good wear?

That's the Wanamaker rule. Quality is kept in the foreground-quality, without which dependable clothing cannot get along.

Isn't that better than making all the hubbub over prices?

DOES THE LAW PROTECT? A number of our patients who have been swindled by traveling doctors, sak why don't the law protect us? We answer: Every doctor will cheerfully show you a receipt given by the Prothonotary bearing the seal of the Court and the date he registered his diploma. Seif-called doctors cannot show such a receipt, and traveling doctors may have one of late date. You can also examine Physicians' Register in Prothonotary's office. Ladies don't employ a Mrs. doctor who is not registered if you value health.
